

RÉSUMÉ : SARAH TEMPLIN

3220 GUILFORD AVE #3 : BALTIMORE, MARYLAND 21218 : 443.858.2327 : BROADCLOTH@GMAIL.COM

Work Experience

- 2001–present : American Visionary Art Museum (AVAM) : Baltimore, MD : the national museum for self-taught artwork
Registrar : in charge of the Permanent Collection and preparing museum exhibits.
Curatorial : principal curator for AVAM's year-long exhibition, Home & Beast, including research, writing and curatorial work.
Administrative : implemented the museum's first Institutional Plan and led a two-year effort to gain museum accreditation by the American Association of Museums
- 2003–present : Broadcloth : Baltimore, MD : a nonprofit organization for textile artists and designers
Director and Founder : established Broadcloth's nonprofit status and developed Broadcloth's studio and artist residency program; duties include curating exhibitions, organizing and teaching workshops, and promoting Broadcloth's programs and mission.

Education

- 2000 : Appalachian State University : Boone, NC
BS in Art Management with a concentration in Fibers. Minor in German.
Study abroad at Justus-Liebig Universitaet in Giessen, Germany

Teaching Experience & Speaking Engagements

- 2008 : Kala Raksha : Bhuj, India
Color Sourcing from Nature and Heritage : two week course at the textile school
- 2007 : American Craft Council Convention : Baltimore, MD
Craft in Contemporary Art : slide lecture
- 2007 : Maryland Public Radio : Baltimore, MD
Maryland Morning with Sheila Kast
- 2004 : Creative Alliance : Baltimore, MD
Introduction to Shibori : six week course at the art center

Curatorial Experience

- 2006 : Home & Beast, American Visionary Art Museum : Baltimore, MD
Home & Beast weaves together themes of our everyday surrounding and interactions, our homes and natural environment we share.
- 2005 : Stitched: Craft/Design/Art : Baltimore, MD
This exhibit looks at the convergence of craft with industrial and graphic design in contemporary art.
- 1996–1998 : Director, Pocket Gallery : Boone, NC
This student-run gallery sought to reflect the interdisciplinary mission of the school by representing philosophy, literature, and history alongside visual art.

Selected Exhibitions

- 2007 : Color : 2219 Gallery, Baltimore, MD
- 2007 : Home : 2219 Gallery, Baltimore, MD
- 2005 : Picture Window : Public art project, Baltimore Office of Promotion and the Arts
- 2004 : Building Alteration Project : Public art project, Baltimore Office of Promotion and the Arts
- 2002 : Maryland Art Place Group Show : MAP, Baltimore, MD
- 2000 : Fabricated Tongues : The Looking Glass Gallery, Appalachian State University
- 2000 : Art Expo : juried exhibition, Appalachian State University
- 1999 : Art Expo : juried exhibition, Appalachian State University
- 1998 : Art Expo : juried exhibition, Appalachian State University

Works Published

- 2007 : Nancy Josephson Artist Profile : American Visionary Art Museum's Oral History project
- 2006 : Loring Cornish Artist Profile : American Visionary Art Museum's Oral History project
- 2006 : Home & Beast Exhibition Catalog : American Visionary Art Museum